ABOUT FEEDING SAN DIEGO

Feeding San Diego (FSD) is the leading hunger-relief organization in San Diego County, serving more than 63,000 people every week through a network of 245 distribution partners, including local charities, schools, faith communities, and food pantries. Last year, FSD distributed 26 million meals throughout the region to children, families, and seniors at risk of hunger. Through a highly efficient model focused on capturing wholesome food before it goes to waste, every dollar donated helps provide four nutritious meals for the one in eight San Diegans facing hunger.
