

Reoccurring Volunteer

Work on meaningful food sorting projects in a warehouse environment.

IMPACT

Volunteers help Feeding San Diego provide more than 26 million meals to people experiencing hunger annually in San Diego County. Volunteers glean fresh produce, pack food for kids and families, and support general warehouse operations in team-based and hands on projects.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Reoccurring Volunteers make a regular commitment to attend a consistent food sorting shift on a weekly or biweekly basis. This will include:

- Helping to pack food for kids, glean produce for families, or sort donated product
- Assisting with general warehouse cleaning
- Working in a team-based environment
- Communicating expected absences to FSD staff in advance, as needed
- Adherence to all safety and food safety policies

TIME COMMITMENT

This volunteer would work 1 food sorting shift either weekly or biweekly. Food sorting shifts take place on Mondays-Saturdays, including some evenings (see below). Please note that volunteer shifts have limited spaces available, and are not guaranteed to be available at any given time. Be sure to include all preferred volunteer shifts in your Volunteer Application and we will do our best to accommodate.
