

Feeding San Diego Volunteer Opportunity

Title:	Volunteer Driver
Volunteer Type:	Remote volunteer
Department(s):	Programs & Volunteer
Reports To:	Kerri Kolarik
Time Commitment:	Hours vary weekly, volunteer through February 2020 with opportunity to support beyond

Major Responsibilities/Tasks

Feeding San Diego works with more than 180 neighborhood partners to provide food and other hunger-relief resources to neighborhoods throughout San Diego County. Help support our neighborhood partners by picking up and delivering donated food through the MealConnect platform to ensure that partner agencies of all sizes and distribution methods can access food from retailers and restaurants that would otherwise go to waste. Provide information and a customer service experience that encourages donors to begin, continue, or grow their involvement with hunger relief. Have the ability to lift 25 or more pounds. Volunteers will have the ability to set service area and hour availability.

Required Qualifications

- Friendly, customer service oriented
- Helpful and flexible schedule
- Must provide your own transportation, with proof of license
- Must be 18 years or older
- Must own a smart phone

Benefits to Middle Mile Volunteer

Leadership volunteer will receive an orientation and training from FSD, which will provide not only a functioning knowledge of the organization but also an education on the state of hunger in San Diego. Training will also include interacting with donors and vendors, proper lifting techniques and food safety policies.

Help increase capacity to rescue and diversify food sources and visibility in the community for ways to combat hunger and food waste.

Volunteer hours will be logged and service letters are available upon completion of minimum time commitment (upon request).

Directly see the impact of your help on the partner agencies that make our mission possible.

Preferred Abilities

- Food bank or previous volunteer experience
- Food handler card

Training Schedule

FSD Leadership Orientations will be scheduled by the Volunteer Programs Manager. This orientation provides volunteers with an understanding of Feeding San Diego as a whole before your role specific training.

How to Apply

Please complete the Volunteer Application and email it to Sam Duke, Volunteer Programs Manager at volunteersd@feedingamericasd.org. Include Middle Mile Volunteer in the subject line of the email. Qualified candidates will be contacted for an in person interview.
