CONNECTING COMMUNITY PARTNERS WITH RESOURCES TO HELP END HUNGER

"During this time of change and uncertainty, our primary focus is to make sure our clients are safe and getting the food they need," said Molly Hall, Kitchen Manager at Alpha Project. "Alpha Project's partnership with Feeding San Diego has brought a new light to fighting hunger. They have connected us to so many amazing resources and partners, including Costco, Albertsons, Bristol Farms, Smart and Final, and many others."

More >>

HOW YOU CAN HELP

For benefit campaigns and fund drives, click here.

PARTNERSHIP WITH LOCAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS HELP FEED STUDENTS OVER THE SUMMER MONTHS

This week, Feeding San Diego participated in an event that brought cheer to Clark Middle School to promote 26 summer meal service sites with San Diego Unified School District. Feeding San Diego supports 12 of these sites with nearly 4,000 food boxes every week. Feeding San Diego is also working with Cajon Valley Union School District to help provide meals over the summer months.

More >>

BASKETBALL LEGEND BILL WALTON SUPPORTS FUEL FOR SUMMER CAMPAIGN

"The life I have is the result of other people and their willingness to help little Billy when he was climbing the mountain. And now that I am here, I have that responsibility. We can do something that's going to be able to lift someone else up, that makes our community better and that's what we are all about," shares Bill Walton, basketball legend, and longtime supporter of Feeding San Diego.

More >>
In response to the rise in hunger due to COVID-19, John Ashworth, Co-founder of LinkSoul, named Feeding San Diego as the charity beneficiary for his annual 108 Holes for a Cause fundraiser taking place on Monday, June 29. He is pledging a financial gift for every hole he completes at the Goat Hill Park golf course. John will be playing golf for over 12 hours in response to his donors. He plans to cover 108 holes and 26 miles in total.

More >>

PLAY YOUR PART FOR AT-RISK YOUTH WITH BRO-AM TOMORROW

Our friends at Switchfoot are hosting their annual BRO-AM event this Saturday, June 27, virtually! Grab your tickets to the live stream event and tune-in for an online concert that is raising funds and awareness for at-risk youth. As one of the charity beneficiaries, we can attest to the fact that children facing hunger need our help more than ever. This is your chance to rock out and play your part for a great cause.

More >>

MEDIA COVERAGE

Times of San Diego – June 25: Raytheon Technologies helps combat hunger with $278,000 gift to Feeding San Diego

FOX5 News - June 25: Feeding San Diego launches Fuel for Summer campaign

Wapak Daily News – June 24: The GHT Companies reaches $10,000 mark in vitamin fundraising pledge for Feeding San Diego

San Diego County News – June 21: Feeding San Diego receives $120,000 gift from Calpine

CORPORATE AND FOUNDATION PARTNERS

Feeding San Diego is grateful to our corporate and foundation partners for their generous contributions of $10,000 and above to our COVID-19 Response Fund.

To learn more about how to support Feeding San Diego, please contact Ali Colbran, Director of Development,