

Food Sorting Volunteer

Pack produce and dry goods for emergency food distributions to support Feeding San Diego's COVID-19 response.

IMPACT

More than 14,000 volunteers annually help make it possible for Feeding San Diego (FSD) to provide meals to 63,000 kids and families in need each week in our community. Become a Food Sorting Volunteer and help support food sorting projects at our distribution center.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Food Sorting Volunteers make a regular commitment to attend a consistent food sorting on a weekly basis. This will include:

- Pack produce and dry goods for emergency distributions
- Assist with general warehouse cleaning
- Working in a team-based environment
- Adherence to all safety and food safety policies

REQUIREMENTS

- Must be at least 18 years of age
- Must have current Food Handler Card (provide a copy), with six months of food safety experience
- Must wear closed-toe shoes while volunteering

TIME COMMITMENT

Food Sorting Volunteers work at least one food sorting project weekly but can attend multiple projects if preferred. Afternoon and evenings preferred.

Available shifts:

- Monday: 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM
- Tuesday: 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM
- Wednesday: 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM
- Thursday: 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM
- Friday: 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM
- Saturday: 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

KEY SKILLS AND ABILITIES

To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required.

Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

- You have a passion for hunger relief and want to make a difference
- Ability to lift ten plus pounds
- You love connecting with people and building relationships
- You are detail-oriented
- You are able to interact with individuals of various backgrounds and ages
- You can work well in a team
- You would rather help while on your feet in the warehouse versus at a desk in the office

HOW TO APPLY

Please submit a Volunteer Application to the Volunteer Department. Applicants will be contacted for a short telephone interview and to verify food handler card.
